KARNATAKA CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES (SECOND AMENDMENT)
BILL, 1976

Motion to consider

4-30 P.M.

SRI K. H. RANGANATH (Minister for Co-operation) — I move :
“That the Karnataka Co-operative Societies (Second Amendment) Bill, 1976, be taken into consideration.”

MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER.— Motion moved :

“That the Karnataka Co-operative Societies (Second Amendment) Bill, 1976, be taken into consideration.”

†SRI K. H. RANGANATH.— Madam Speaker, this is very small Bill containing few clauses. This Bill is sought to replace the ordinance that has already come into existence and which is in operation. The object of the Government in bringing out this Ordinance and replacing this Ordinance by this Bill is made quite abundantly clear in the statement of objects and reasons. The most important clauses of the Bill are clauses 2, 3 and 4. Clause 2 seeks to give powers to the Registrar to reorganise, amalgamate the societies. This decision was taken by the Government since the credit societies numbering about 2700 were not functioning properly. The Government thought in the interests of making those institutions viable and fit instruments for implementing the economic programme of the Government, the new clause 14-A is introduced in Clause 4, section 30A is introduced. According to this clause the Government will have power to appoint a Special Officer to find out whether the co-operative institutions are working properly or not. Clause 2A disqualifies the members of the Committee. The other clauses are consequential. With these few remarks, I commend this Bill for the approval of this august House.
